The lit le clavichord of past times needs that a present day pianist should put his ear to it in order to heir it. Its delicate, ministure gradations of tone would be lost indeed on a modern audience. Ydt. Bach's forty-eight preduces and fugues were written for it. Were they intended for a single hearer? String augustes with ten for it. Were they intended for a single hearer? String quartets etil hold their own, but the day is not far distant when they, too, must disappear from public it.e before the myriad headed and ences of the immediate future. They will retire intended to be channed become originally intended to be channed ber music. Some day—may it be a distant one—they may be revived by the curfuous in those things as specimens of a charming but obsolete form of agt.—Nineteenth Century.

There's nothing left of Catarrh, when you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. With the poisonous, irritating snuffs and a rong, caustic solutions, a good deal is left. They may, perhaps, stop it for a time, but there's danger of no matter how had the case, or of how long stanling. Not only Catarrh itself but Catarrhal Head to 1e, Cold in the Head - everyt ing cataribal in its nature. The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleanting and healing properties. So will yours. You may not be-lieve it, but the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy do.

this offer:

If they can't care you, they'll pay you 8500 in cash. It's a business proposition from a responsible But do you think they'd make driving it to the lungs. They work on false principles.

But Dr. Sage's Remedy cures it,

And to prove it they make you it if they, and you, couldn't depend upon their medicine?

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for chil-dren. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children." Da. G. C. Oscood,

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day issort far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria in-stead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by foreing epium, morphise, soothing syrup and other huriful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
